The University of Utah’s Engineering Management Program is designed to give students the body of knowledge they need to succeed in the business of engineering management. In addition to solid engineering skills in specific areas, project management courses train engineers in the language and techniques of business.

The curriculum for the Engineering Management Program is an engineering degree with special emphasis on the development and control of projects. Students in the Engineering Management program are required to complete:

- 15 credit hours (5 courses) of the core coursework.
- 15 credit hours (5 courses) of the following courses:
  - CVEEN 6810, Cost Estimating & Proposal Writing
  - CVEEN 6820, Project Scheduling
  - CVEEN 6830, Project Management & Contract Administration
  - CVEEN 6850, Engineering Law
  - ACCTG 6000, Financial Accounting
  - ACCTG 6001, Managerial Accounting
  - ACCTG 6101, Managerial Accounting
  - FINAN 6020, Financial Management
  - FINAN 6210, Cases in Financial Strategy
  - MGT 6051, Managing & Leading in Organizations
  - MGT 6052, Business Communications
  - MGT 6310, Business Law
  - MKTG 6090, Marketing Management
  - MKTG 6300, Marketing in the Information Age

Other courses may be adopted.

For more information please contact Amanda May, Academic Advisor, at amandam@civil.utah.edu or by phone (801) 581-6931.